

Floating Villages Scams

Please be aware of scams for Tourists in the floating villages and Kampong Pluk!

Please do not buy schoolbooks, rice, noodles etc for the children at the "school". The schools are put there as a tourist attraction, almost like a zoo. The children are not orphans, but children the conmen gather as part of their scam. These children should have been home with their families, and attended to a real school.