

NORWEGIAN POP

Famed Norwegian singer-songwriter Hanne Sørvaag is in town for a fundraiser by Babel Guesthouse, and she'll play in The Warehouse bar tonight with Babel's resident songstress, student supervisor, Hilde Marie Kvalosoter. Hanne has a new single and album on the Norwegian pop charts, and she is having big success with a song she's written, Say Hello to Goodbye. The song sits on the Billboard's Top 29 charts, sung by Rihanna's childhood friend from Barbados, Shontelle. Sørvaag made history when she became the first woman with two songs in the international finals of the Eurovision Song Contest in 2010 with My Heart is Yours, sung by Didrik Solli-Tangen of Norway and Shine for singer Georgia. 