

Cooking Class

Want to learn how to cook Khmer food yourself? Beyond Unique Escapes can teach you how to make traditional Cambodian Cuisine. They will take you to a rural village, where you will learn about the herbs and vegetables grown in most Khmer households and used in daily cooking. The visit to a family's home is an opportunity to learn about food preparation in a Khmer home. After this you will return to a pavilion to commence cooking. Together with your chef and guide you will create several dishes witch you can reproduce at home.
